S. P. PRESNELL, Sheriff of Bollinger county, Mo.

A real hard luck story comes from the Fairland News-Herald, illustrating the evil results of a mortgage. A man mortgaged his farm to buy his wife a pair of diamond earrings. The wife took in washing to pay the interest on the mortgage. The first wash day she lost one of the earrings, and tried to hang herself in the barn. But the rope broke and she fell on a $150 Jersey cow, breaking its neck.—St. Joseph Observer.

J. W. Fristoe, president of the T. J. Moss Tie Company, was appointed receiver for the Cape Northern railroad late this afternoon by judge R. P. Ranney of Common Pleas court on petition of Gibney Houck, son of Louis Houck, former owner and builder of the road. In his petition, Gibney Houck alleges indebtedness of the road to him for money loaned on note and asks for the appointment of a receiver to protect his interests. Receiver Fristoe telegraphed R. H. Schultz his appointment as general manager of the road tonight, a position Schultz has held since the Byrd Syndicate took over the road from Louis Houck several months ago.

Editor Tribble Moves to Arkansas

With this issue of the paper, the "Dunklin Dispatch" closes its career in Kennett. We have decided to locate at Lake City, Ark., from which place the publication of the paper will be continued, but under another title. The editor has no complaint to guests of C. D. Whitener and family Sunday.

"Uncle Joe" Rhodes died at his home near Olathe recently. The funeral was attended by a large number of relatives, friends and acquaintances. The bereaved have the sympathies of all.

Our Sunday school is moving out splendidly, and the attendance is good.

Steve Berry and family, Grace and Guy Ramage were the guests of Z. M. Rhodes and family Sunday.

John Berry and sister, Miss Hazel, seem to be the champion spud cutters, as they cut 45 sacks in 10 hours. Can you beat that?

Ed Whitener has gone into the rabbit business. He now has twenty-one.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Whitener made a trip to Olathe one day last week with a load of produce.

Eggs are 15 cents per dozen, butter, 25 cents; potatoes, 80 cents per cwt.; onions, $4 per cwt.

The cattle men are now rounding up their cattle to take them to the hills. John Cooper is pasturing 500 on his ranch.

"Uncle Bud" Wuesting and Aunt Lizzie Rhodes were visiting at Z. M. Rhodes' Saturday night.

Frank Ramage is very sick with a chronic disease.

C. D. Whitener is stocking the people with strawberry and raspberry plants this spring. He has sold 2,300 plants at $1.25 per hundred.

Core Cooper has learned to be cook since his family took sick with measles. He says he don't mind the cooking if he knew how and had some one to wash the dishes.

Miss Ruth Rhodes is staying with Marion Priddy's folks during their illness with measles.

Miss McClendon convicted.

Miss Ella McClendon of Sturdivant was tried in the United States District court at Cape Girardeau last week and found guilty and sentenced to Leavenworth, Kansas, penitentiary to serve five years. There were four counts in the indictment as follows:

Count 1—a forged check on the Southeast Missouri Trust company for $61.50, which amount she obtained before the forgery was discovered.

Count 2—a forged check for $150 on the Bank of Advance which amount she did not receive.

Count 3—a forged check on the Clear Creek County bank of Georgetown, Colo., for $1,000, which amount she did not get.

Count 4—a forged note for $8,000 which she did not succeed in getting cashed.

Miss McClendon broke down when Judge Dyer pronounced the sentence and the scene is said to have been most pitiable. There were few dry eyes in the court room.

Olathe, Colo.

Here I come again with a little bunch of items from California mesa. Health is fine and everybody has recovered from the measles.

Potato planting is the order of the day. Most of the ranchers are planting from twenty to sixty acres.

Wheat and alfalfa are looking fine. Alfalfa is half knee high and the spring wheat hides the ground and hasn't been irrigated yet.

The prospect for fruit of all kinds is fine so far. Apples and apricots are in bloom.

There will be a pie social and entertainment at Fairview schoolhouse Friday night, April 18. I wish you young folks back in Missouri could be here and have a good time with us Colorado youngsters.

Henry Liley is staying with Core Cooper during his illness with measles. Henry says it is worse than Missouri measles, for he had it in Missouri.

Newt Whitener and family and John Cooper and family were the
